

students will be able to...

find library resources and services to support academic success

students will be able to...

craft an appropriately scoped research topic and identify researchable key concepts within it

students will be able to...

successfully select, access and navigate research tools to retrieve information objects

students will be able to...

evaluate an information object for scholarship and authority

students will be able to...

understand the purpose of citations and use them in academic research